PRESS RELEASE

ENDICOTT — On Monday, Jan. 25, 2019, detectives from the Endicott Police Department were called to investigate a burglary that had occurred in West Main Street area shortly after 11:30 p.m. the night before.

While investigating the incident, the detective vehicle began taking shots from a BB gun.

Detectives eventually discovered that the shots had come from a suspect's residence, and resultantly conducted a search of the South Duane Avenue residence in the Village of Endicott.

During the search, detectives recovered the BB gun related to the above-noted shooting, as well as a Ruger Carbine rifle with a defaced serial number.

As a result of the investigation, police arrested 47-year-old Angel T. Rohena of South Duane Avenue.

Rohana was taken into custody on one count of criminal possession of a weapon in the third degree, a Class D felony; one count of reckless endangerment in the second degree, a Class A misdemeanor; and one count of burglary in the third degree, a Class D felony.

Regarding the burglary at Upper Cuts Barbershop in the Village of Endicott, police discovered that Rohana had stolen an ATM machine containing an undisclosed amount of money.

With the help of the New York State Police Dive Team, the ATM was located in the Susquehanna River in the Town of Union.

The continued investigation resulted in a search of a Town of Maine residence, which recovered a portion of the stolen currency.

Rohana was taken into custody without incident, nor were any parties injured.
